

Teel Petty New Castle City Councilperson:

Council person Petty has served the city of New Castle for more than eight (8) years. Presently elected for four (4) more years. During Mrs. Petty's tenure she has received certificates of Professional Development and Training offered through the Institute for Public Administration at the University of Delaware.

Mrs. Petty is a member of the Delaware League of Local Governments, New Castle Historical Society, serves on the New Castle Dike Management Advisory Committee, C.P.R. and Delaware Food Bank Certified. Preservation Delaware. President of the Buttonwood Civic Association where councilperson lead the effort to restore the Buttonwood Colored School Museum and Community Center, presently working to restore the Banks Building in down town New Castle.

Councilperson presently serves as the liaison for Public Safety and Fire Department, the Summer Recreation Program. Councilperson Petty lives in the Community of Buttonwood with her husband Former Chief of Police Eugene C. Petty.